

Join the National Assessment Governing Board

The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) – also known as The Nation’s Report Card – is the largest nationally representative assessment of student achievement. The National Assessment Governing Board, created by Congress to oversee NAEP, is seeking a diverse group of educators and leaders to help maintain The Nation’s Report Card as an innovative measure of student achievement.

Five Open Positions for 2018:

- Fourth-Grade Teacher
- Eighth-Grade Teacher
- Secondary School Principal
- Chief State School Officer
- General Public Representative

The Governing Board identifies subjects to be tested, determines the content and achievement levels for each assessment, approves all test questions, and helps ensure widespread dissemination of NAEP results. New Governing Board members will also lead groundbreaking efforts that support our Strategic Vision, an initiative to expand outreach, partnerships, and NAEP’s overall impact.

“From the moment I joined the Governing Board, my voice was heard. In fact, it was expected. Serving on the Board has been a defining moment of my career and it has transformed my definition of teacher leadership.”

Shannon Garrison, board-certified fourth-grade teacher and Governing Board member

“‘Student’ was the first word that I spoke as a member of the Governing Board. To be able to help students and to improve education for our nation is why I serve on the Board.”

Chasidy White, former eighth-grade teacher and current Governing Board member
