

Blue Sky Discussion

An open discussion of the full Governing Board

This entire session will be devoted to generating and discussing ideas for NAEP and the Governing Board.

“Blue sky” thinking is useful for generating creative ideas that are not limited by current thinking, beliefs, or resource constraints. It is essentially open-minded thinking, for example, as wide and clear as a blue sky without limits.

There are no background reading materials for this discussion.