

November 6, 2015

Dear Board Member,

We are pleased to provide the agenda and briefing materials for the November 19-21, 2015 meeting of the National Assessment Governing Board. The meeting and accommodations will be at the Westin Crystal City, located at 1800 Jefferson Davis Highway in Arlington, Virginia.

We have arranged for a special briefing to dive deeper on an item of interest that arose at our August 2015 outreach event. On Thursday afternoon Brandon Busteed, Gallup's Executive Director of Education and Workforce Development, will brief the Board on what Gallup is learning about education. The Executive Committee will meet at its usual time, with a portion of the meeting occurring in closed session to discuss options for consideration regarding the NAEP budget and Assessment Schedule. I encourage all Board members to attend the Executive Committee meeting to further inform the Board's action on the Assessment Schedule on Saturday, November 21.

On Friday morning, I will provide the Board with standard updates on behalf of the Board's staff, followed by updates from Ruth Neild on behalf of the Institute for Education Sciences, and Peggy Carr on behalf of the National Center for Education Statistics. After the Committees meet at their usual time, Friday's working lunch session will be closed for a briefing on achievement levels for the NAEP Technology and Engineering Literacy (TEL) Assessment at grade eight, prior to scheduled action on Saturday, November 21. On Friday afternoon, the Board will have a briefing and discussion on the 2015 Trial Urban District Assessment Report Card in reading and math. The Board will receive its annual briefing from the NAGB/Council of Chief State School Officers Policy Task Force group's Vice Chair, Shelly Loving-Ryder. The final agenda item on Friday is the annual ethics briefing for Governing Board members.

Early Saturday morning, the Nominations Committee will convene in closed session, with action expected on a slate of finalists for the chief state school officer vacancy. The full Board will first meet on Saturday in closed session for the nominations followed by an update and discussion on the NAEP budget and Assessment Schedule. In open session, the Board will reconvene to take action on the NAEP Assessment Schedule. After a short break, the Board will hear an update from NCES on its Future of NAEP activities. Vice Chair Lucille Davy will then provide an update on the Governing Board's Strategic Planning Initiative and invite Board members to offer their comments. The November 2015 Board meeting will close with Committee reports and Board action.

I look forward to seeing you soon and wish you safe travels. If you need further assistance in your preparations for the Board meeting, please let us know how we can help.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill".

William J. Bushaw
Executive Director
