

Nora Briggs Bio

Nora Briggs joined The Dollywood Foundation in 2019, pivoting in from a successful career in the private sector. Nora has over 25 years of building teams, driving results, and leading change.

Nora was a frequent speaker and Subject Matter Expert on Housing Policy, Construction, Insurance and Data Topics. A self-professed data geek!

Graduate from Georgetown University with a Masters in Communications. Undergrad education in Accounting/Finance, Engineering and Construction Management.

Nora's passion for reading and learning is perfectly aligned with her key focus in driving North American expansion of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library.