

Holly Zanville, Ph.D.

Senior Advisor for Credentialing and Workforce Development
at Lumina Foundation

Holly Zanville is Senior Advisor for Credentialing and Workforce Development at Lumina Foundation. She leads a new portfolio on Worker and Employer Engagement that focuses on building the capacity of educators and employers to scale and spread the best ideas in training, credentialing, and other workforce development strategies linked to postsecondary learning opportunities; and examining issues around the future of work and learning. Her work includes cultivation of networks and partnerships essential to the emerging new postsecondary learning system including Credential Engine, quality assurance efforts to ensure that credentials stand for high-quality learning, and networks for research and industry sector engagement. She previously led Lumina's development of the national Connecting Credentials initiative, credential completion for returning adults with prior college/no credential, and statewide approaches to reverse-transfer degrees through the Credit When It's Due initiative. Zanville received her Ph.D. in Educational Administration from the University of Minnesota; MA in English from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and BA in English and Biology from Lindenwood University.
